implemented by government of india in partnership with state governments is indias main programme, sarva shiksha abhiyan. The sarva shiksha abhiyan ssa is also known as the education for all movement or each one teach one. It was introduced in the academic year 2000-2001 as the flagship programme run by the government of india. The scheme ensures education to all school-aged children between the age group of 6 to 14 by 2010. Another goal is to bridge social, regional and gender category gaps with the active participation of the community. Inclusive education is a human right issue every child with special needs has the right to receive education in the neighborhood school. Therefore, every school is an inclusive school. The right to education in the neighborhood school is granted to every child with special needs. Sarva shiksha abhiyan focuses on quality education children with special needs. Sarva shiksha abhiyan ssa is a programme for universal elementary education. This programme is also an attempt to provide an opportunity for improving human capabilities to all children through provision of community-owned quality education in a mission mode. All of us know since long that country is geared towards universalising elementary education through its flagship programme sarva shiksha abhiyan ssa i.e., education for all which means access, retention, learning, and the completion of elementary education for every child of 6 to 14 years. In 2002, India enacted the historic 86th Indian constitutional amendment act that declared elementary education as a fundamental right for all children with 304 million Indian citizens still non-literate. UNDP 2009 the educational challenge could not be addressed merely with declarations of rights so the government of India launched the sarva shiksha abhiyan the education, 1.0. Basic features of sarva shiksha abhiyan ssa: Sarva shiksha abhiyan is an effort to universalise elementary education by community ownership of the school system. It is a response to the demand for quality basic education all over the country. It is sarva shiksha abhiyan ssa likely to be extended to 2020? Going by available information it is likely the education for all movement of the government of India operational since 2000-2001 is aimed at the universalisation of elementary education in a time-bound manner. Writes T Radhakrishna of Elets News Network ENN, initiated by the advertisements. Sarva shiksha abhiyan ssa is a programme for universal elementary education. This programme is also an attempt to provide an opportunity for improving human capabilities to all children through provision of community-owned quality education in a mission mode.
